the O-High Annual

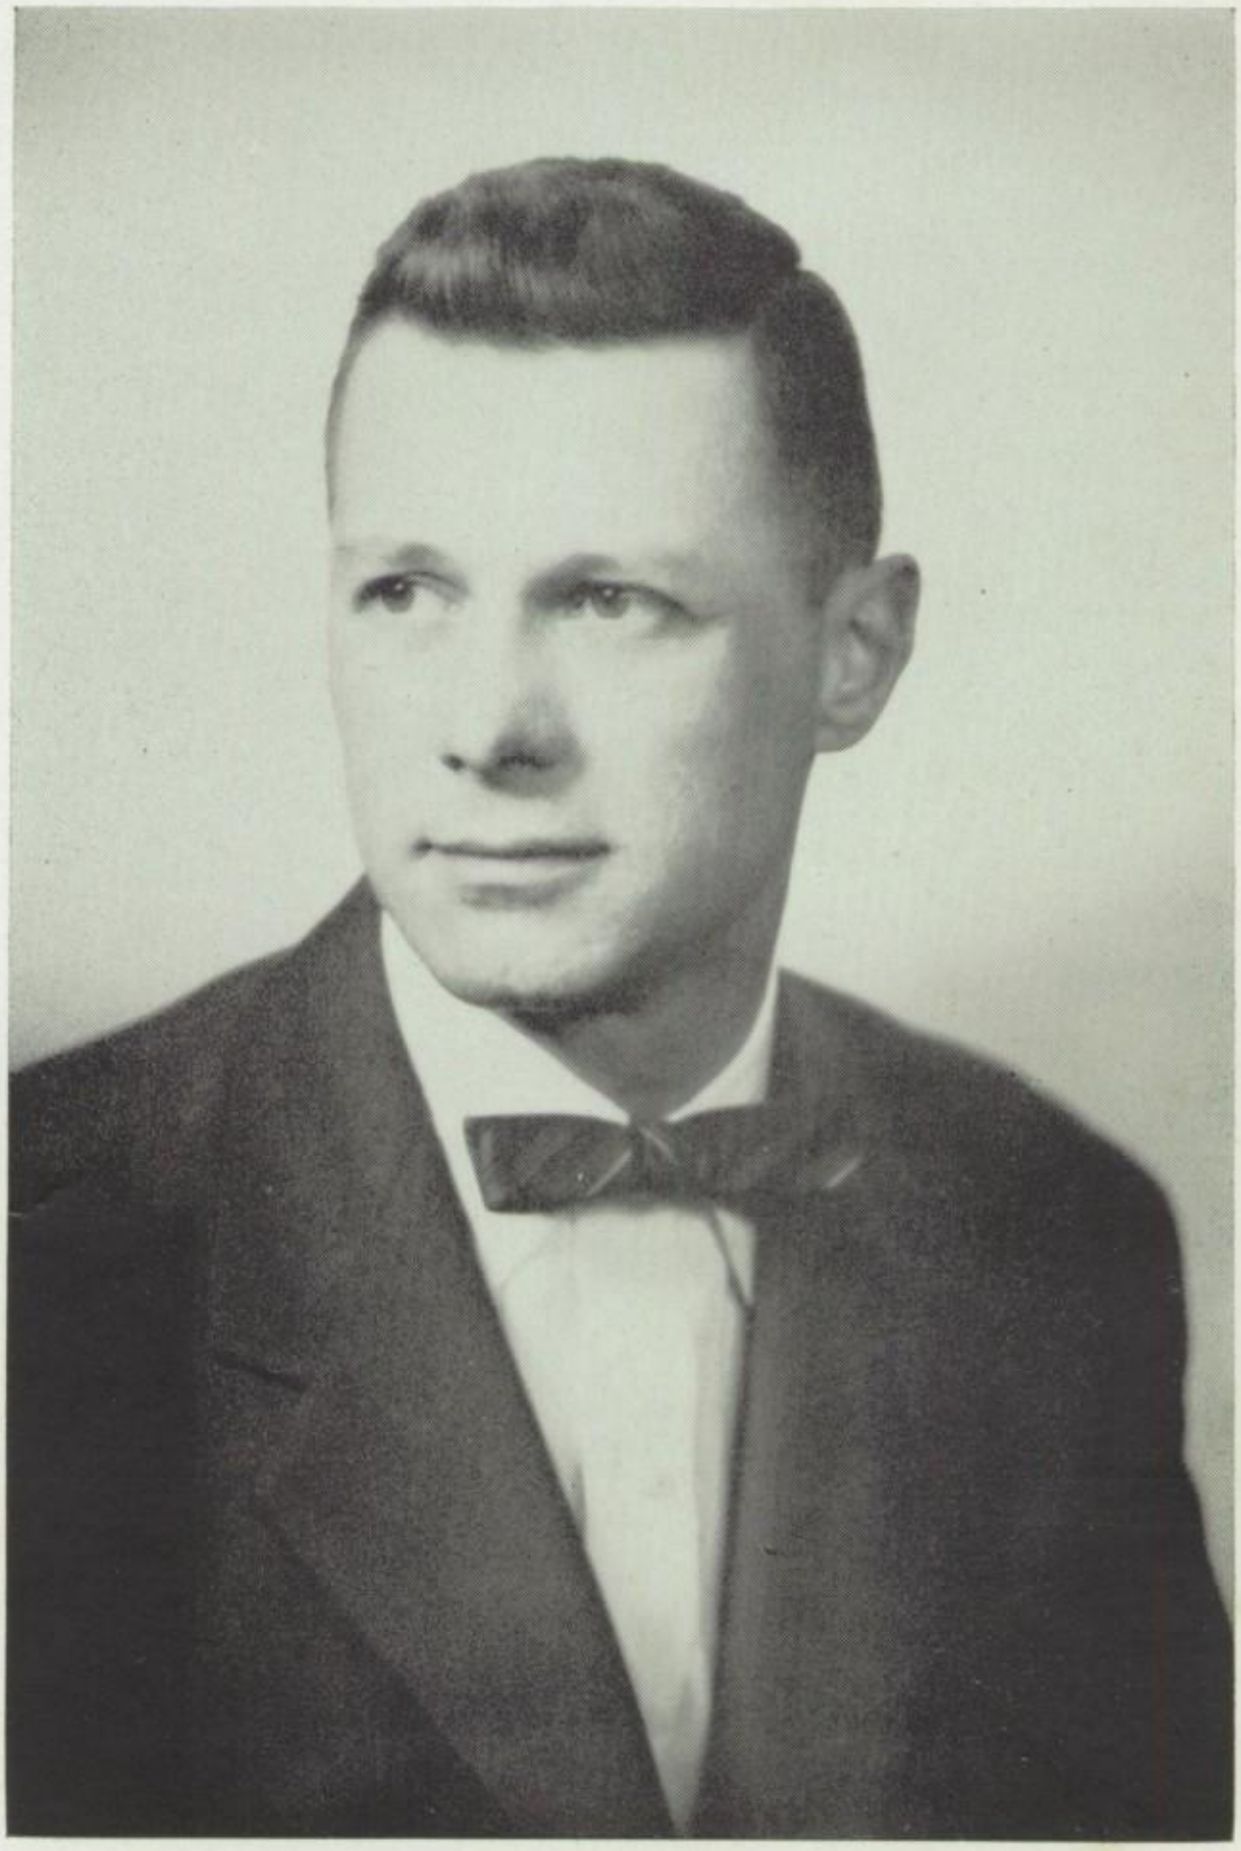
1954

Oberlin High School

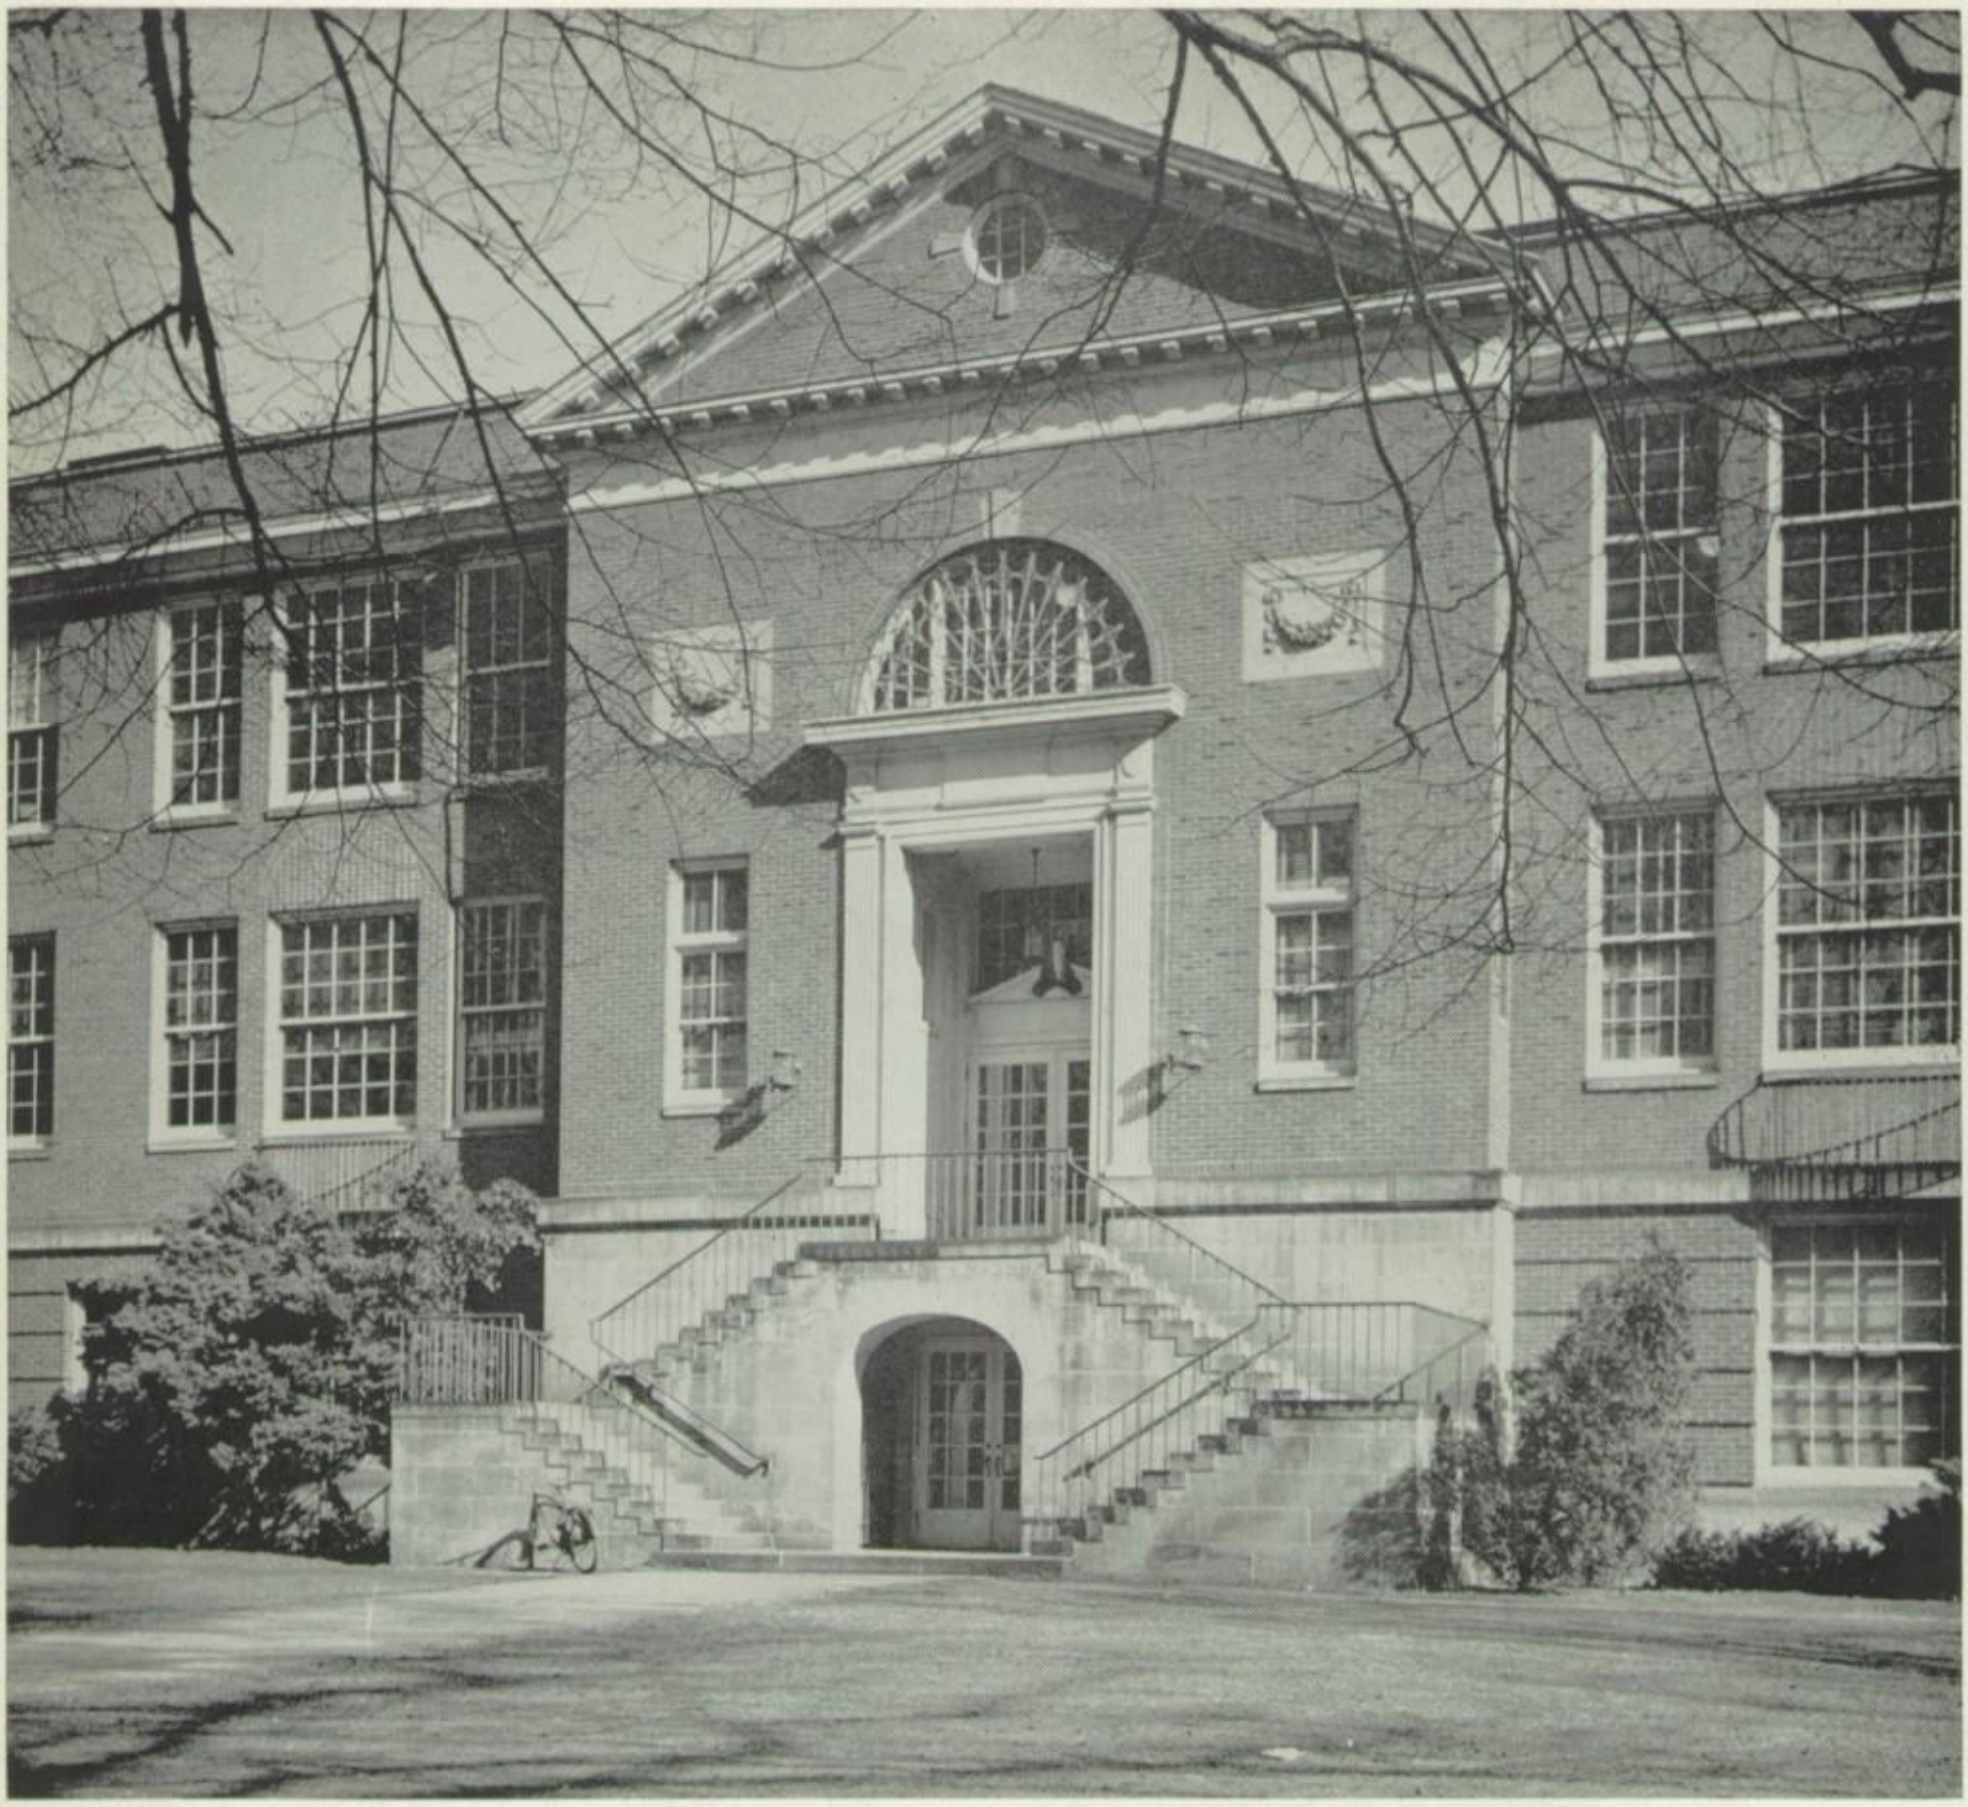
Oberlin, Ohio

Dedication

ALTHOUGH MR. ROSS has been with us only two years, he has become firmly established as our school's first citizen. He has proved himself to be helpful, confident, intelligent, and efficient, and is, without doubt, the busiest person in the school. All of us who have known Mr. Ross, through his daily announcements, his classroom teaching, his wise disciplinary measures, or his friendly counsel, have been impressed by his quick thinking and good judgment. In recognition of his outstanding character and achievements, we, the class of 1954, proudly dedicate this our annual to the principal of Oberlin High School, Mr. James N. Ross.



JAMES N. ROSS



OBERLIN HIGH SCHOOL

There's a high school down in Oberlin
In the good old Buckeye State,
Where they all know how to play the game
With a spirit truly great.
We will rise and give a mighty shout
For the red and blue to win,
And our praise will ring forever
In a cheer for Oberlin.

Lou Habecker leaves the "Merc" to Kinzer and her "growl" to Dave Hanmer.

Doris Heilman leaves her books to Irma Thompson.

Ada Holloway leaves to Norma Lawson and Emma Atkinson her toothless comb, to be used with the best of care.

Joan Hurd leaves her loose seat in Civics to anyone carrying a screwdriver.

Clayton Kaiser leaves Jerry Gyorgy his barbells and six cans of chocolate milk.

Jim Kern leaves.

Chuck Kunkler wills "Night Train," and a seat at Kenny's to Jim Young.

Gloria Kunkler leaves her love of cheerleading to next year's cheerleaders.

Don Martin leaves his gun to Tom Humphrey.

The majorettes leave their places to next year's high-steppers.

Carolyn McDole leaves to Helen Peabody her love of eating cheeseburgers with onion.

The M. Fletchers will two tables at Kenny's to followers of the way.

John Nasipak wills his "New Yorker" to all the cats in the junior class.

Karole Payne leaves Joe to Bunnie for safe keeping.

Bev Pettet leaves the editorship of O-High-Lights to anyone wanting to work.

Peg Ritter leaves Miss Merthe's freezing room to all those poor souls who will be taking French or Latin.

Shirley Rogers leaves her basketball shoes to Carol Beese and Liberace to Connie Moore.

Pat Scroggins leaves to her protege, Connie Moore, one sore leg and one charging foul.

Lee Smith leaves a glass of tomato juice to Sonny Dewey.

Barb Stechow wills her long walk to school to Jane Butler.

George Thompson leaves his Ford to Joanne.

Anne Turner and Sue Wolfe leave all future college practice teachers to those lucky juniors.

Ruth Vedder wills her chubbiness to Barb Berg and Peg Lillich.

Joe Walker has already left.

Nellie Walker leaves a few extra pounds to Meritha Stokes and Delores Atwood, in the hope that they can use them.

Don Wicks wills everything he has to anybody who wants it.

Ray Wilgor is going to need everything he has and is leaving nothing behind.

Pam Worcester leaves her sewing ability to her sister Joan.

Joan Young leaves her salesmanship ability to Marilyn Oakley.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Dick Aughenbaugh, Lee Smith, Peter Arnold, Mrs. Nairn, director, James Getty, Ralph Fox.
Seated:

"Dear Ruth," a two-act farce by Norman Krasna, was presented by the senior class in Hall Auditorium on April 9 and 10.

The large stage of the auditorium and its excellent lighting and orchestra facilities provided staging effects and background never possible before.

The fine directing of Mrs. Nairn, assisted by Richard Hoops, an Oberlin College student, plus the hard work of a good cast resulted in a most enjoyable presentation of a good play.

In this hilarious comedy, a young girl corresponds romantically with a soldier overseas, using the name and picture of her older sister, Ruth. Ruth is already engaged and when the soldier comes home unexpectedly, a most amusing and complicated situation results.

Activities

OBERLIN HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The O. H. S. Band has always been one of the most active musical organizations in the school. This year, under Mr. Weldon's able guidance, the band provided some pretty snappy half-time entertainment at the football games, gave a spring concert, and played host to the Clearview, Amherst, and Wellington bands in the annual Southwestern Conference Band Festival held this year in Oberlin's Hall Auditorium. A small German band, "The Polka Dots," played for several pep-rallies and red-and-blue games. Mr. Weldon deserves a special vote of thanks for his patience and hard work in making the band this year one of the best ever in O. H. S. history.

Instrumental music at O. H. S. received quite a boost this year thanks to the enthusiasm of the BOP, Band and Orchestra Parents Association. They sponsored two roller-skating parties and a very successful variety show, and they collected tax stamps and merchandise tokens to raise money for music racks, school instruments, etc. Again, thanks goes to Mr. Weldon for much time and energy put into this project, as well as to the parents who worked with him.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra this year was a small but hard-working group and did a fine job in the Spring Concert and in providing music for the Senior Play.

In the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Fairview in March, Oberlin's forty contestants entered in thirty-six events. They were the largest delegation there and won first place in thirty events and second place in six, a record of which they can be proud.

SENIOR HIGH GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

These girls, under the direction of Miss Helen Thompson and Miss Hilda Magdsick, with Anne Brainerd at the piano, made some of the most lovely music at O. H. S. this year. They looked very attractive in the neat choir robes for the Christmas Pageant and really beautiful in their pastel formals as they did their part in the Spring Concert.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Junior High Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Magdsick and Mrs. Magerkurth of the Conservatory, gave a very fine performance in the annual Christmas program and also sang for the spring P. T. A. meeting for sixth graders and their parents at Pleasant Street School. Several different Conservatory students were accompanists for the group; and Judy Thompson, a talented eighth grade student, served in this capacity also.

DANCE BAND

Front Row: Wade Ellis, Bob Johnson, Daniel Clark, Jean Carpenter, Shirley Howard, Marianne Cochrane.

The "Senators" added much to the O. H. S. musical spirit this year. They played sweet music and hot jazz for those memorable Friday night dances.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

This select group of girl singers sang beautifully for the Christmas pageant and Spring Concert. Besides these performances, they sang for community clubs and other school programs. Thanks to the able direction of Miss Magdsick, this group had a very successful year.

This year's Student Senate, under the direction of Phil Shaver, president, and Mr. Ross, advisor, solved many of our school's problems. The Senate was instrumental in improving high school-college relations, in establishing a system of hall monitors, and in settling several matters of school policy. Through the Senate's informative discussions, each homeroom's representative learned about democratic procedures in school government.

Under the excellent editorship of Beverly Pettet, and with Miss May as advisor, the O-High Lights' staff members met every Monday noon during the school year. With each member responsible for a definite news "beat," the staff attempted to give complete coverage of the school news. Their articles appeared each Thursday on the school page in the local newspaper.

FINE ARTS CLUB

Under the leadership of Miss Schramm and Miss Grills as advisors, the Fine Arts Club had a very good year. The officers of the group were Anne Turner, president; Beverly Pettet, vice-president; Carol King, secretary; Ada Lee Holloway, treasurer; and Carol Beese, social chairman.

The traditional initiation activity started at the Allen Art Museum where the new members had all sorts of make-up plastered on them, after which they were led through town and out to the college athletic field. The following week the formal initiation was held where all members agreed to keep the tryst.

The club this year had some very enjoyable programs. These included a talk on Civil Defense, after which money was donated to the Civil Defense program, a Christmas party and gift exchange, a talk on Girls' State, a showing of slides of the Simpsons' trip West in the summer of 1953, a talk on India, and a Mother-Daughter Tea. On the last day before Christmas vacation, the club sang carols in the halls at school and also collected money and canned goods for needy families. In addition they sponsored a very successful Christmas Formal for the school. The weekend house party in May marked the end of a very enjoyable and profitable year.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The officers of the Home Economics Club for this year are President, Nancy Olsen, Vice-President, Jo Ann Olsen, Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Lou Walter. They received pins which they wear during their year in office. Each member receives points for attending the meetings and helping in extra activities of the club. The money collected from the bake sale and dues was used to buy material to make curtains for the Home Economics room.

In February we had a Valentine Banquet at the Inn. Our speaker, Mr. Arthur Campbell, showed us pictures of his travels in Europe last year.

In the spring we had a picnic where the new officers were chosen for the coming year.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

With Miss Pease as advisor and Jim Davidson as president, the Junior Red Cross Council experienced a successful year. In November, members of the County Junior Red Cross Council presented an excellent talent show as the culmination of the membership drive. By collecting $86.39 in the fall membership campaign and sending overseas gift boxes in the spring, the Council made its annual contribution to international friendship.

Girls' Athletic Association

The G. A. A. is an organization for all girls in grades 9 through 12 who are interested in participating in sports and other related social activities.

The traditional initiation of the freshmen at the "Arb" began the G. A. A. year. A week later the freshmen started to play their first real hockey game. Black and blue shins were in order by the time the Red and Blue hockey teams were chosen. The Blue team, captained by Shirley Rogers, won a decisive victory over the Reds, led by Ada Lee Holloway.

The basketball season followed with the seniors taking honors in the class tournament. On the night of the Red and Blue game all senior girls were honored. Under the captaincy of Carolyn McDole, the Reds won 38-19 over the Blues, under Pat Douglas.

After a surprise vacation, due to the weather, all G. A. A. girls came back with renewed vigor, ready to plunge into class volleyball.

On March 27th Oberlin had the pleasure of welcoming girls from Wellington, Ridgeville, and Amherst for a basketball-volleyball playday. Everyone enjoyed our newly-acquired friends.

In the spring came the softball season with fun and dust for all.

The G. A. A. had several banquets and trips before the year ended. Who will ever forget the Red and Blue banquets at Martin's Inn or all the hard work put in at the food stand during football season?

In the conclusion of another year of work and play, let us hope that everyone has had a wonderful time and will never forget these many worthwhile events and experiences.

The members of G. A. A. give many thanks to Miss Grills, who spent untold time and effort in patiently directing our activities.

Kneeling: Connie Moore, Carol King, Gail Stang, Marianne Cochrane.

The Red and Blue all-star teams are composed of the best players in the whole school. These players are chosen for their highly developed skills, good sportsmanship, team work, and for general interest in the sport.

They are divided into two groups which are as evenly matched as possible. A Red and Blue game is played at the conclusion of the season in each sport, and it is a time of keen and exciting competition. To be a member of a Red or Blue team is considered an honor, since it represents real accomplishment in athletic skills and in good sportsmanship.

When the practice started on August 20th, thirty-six enthusiastic football hopefuls turned out. The team's average weight was 155 pounds, and, as a result, most observers picked Oberlin to win two games at the most. Coach Campbell's gridders rounded out the season with a four and four record. After winning their first game, they took the back seat for a few games before returning to the winning column. Honorary ceremonies were held for the player's parents during the half-time of the Fairview game. Oberlin returned to the field in the second half of this game to close their third game. The high point of the season came when Oberlin set back Rocky River with a score of 33 to 13.

The backfield was sparked by senior, Don Wicks, who was elected to the first All Southwestern Team. Other outstanding backfieldmen were seniors Don Martin and Sam Coleman and sophomore Jerry Gyorgy. The line was boosted by Jon Nasipak, who was selected as one of the linemen on the second All Southwestern Team.

Letters were presented to twenty-four players at the football banquet which was held in the Pleasant Street School cafeteria.

BASKETBALL

Coach Coleman, in his first year at Oberlin, was given the job of building a varsity basketball team without a single returning letterman. The team dropped all of their games, and consequently ended in the cellar of the Cleveland Southwestern League. Though the varsity had hard sledding, the reserves had a fair record, which looks promising for the years to come. Much of the burden next year will be on the shoulders of Charles Dewey, Dick Dewey, Frank Palczer, Harry Bryant, Don Bungard, and Jack Coniam. High point man this year was freshman, Jack Coniam, with 180, who was followed closely by Dick Dewey with 165. Dick Dewey was chosen to play in the "March of Dimes" game, played in the Oberlin College field house. Let's wish Coach Coleman the best of luck in the '54-55 season.

The A.B.C. basketball team had a very successful season, losing only two out of the ten games they played.

The Seventh Grade team played Amherst, Clearview, and Wellington and won all of their games making a perfect season for them.

It's so nice to find a boat that floats that is like corn cob

When you eat yes and think your sweet take it's your toes and smell
your feet
